

The Faculty of Veterinary Medicine invites applications for a

W3 Professorship for Veterinary Physiology as of April 1st, 2022.

Reference is made to § 61 Para. 7 Hessian Higher Education Act (HHG) and to conditions of employment based on § 62 HHG. Proficient knowledge of German is expected.

Tasks:

The successful candidate will represent veterinary physiology together with the other professorship at the institute of veterinary physiology and biochemistry in research and teaching. The teaching area comprises the courses intended for the Department of Physiology in the Veterinary Licensing Ordinance (TAppV) and in the study regulations of the faculty.

The research should be related to the Justus Liebig University's (JLU) focus area „Cardio-Pulmonary System“ focusing on lung research or to the area of potential “Infections and Active Agents” with an emphasis on immunology. The willingness to cooperate in joint projects of the University and the Research Campus Mittelhessen is required.

Participation in graduate education within the framework of the International Giessen Graduate Centre for the Life Sciences (GGL) and the Ph.D. program organized in collaboration with the Department of Medicine is expected.

The professorship is intended to strengthen the international network of the faculty through its international relations with researchers in other European and non-European countries. The integration of gender issues in teaching and research is strongly desired.

Requirements:

Obligatory prerequisites are an excellent doctorate, additional scientific achievements (e.g. habilitation) and a special pedagogical qualification. In addition, internationally recognized research achievements and publications in designated national and international journals in the field of physiology are expected. Relevant experience in the independent acquisition and management of external funded projects (preferably DFG) are also required.

JLU aims to employ more women in academic research. We therefore particularly encourage female candidates to apply. JLU also pursues the goal at faculty leadership level of increased competence in dealing with gender and family-related issues. JLU is regarded as a family-friendly university. Applicants with children are very welcome. Applications from disabled people of equal aptitude will be given preference.

Please send your letter of application (no e-mails, please) with a CV and a documentation of your qualifications and teaching competence to: The President of Justus Liebig University Giessen, Erwin-Stein-Gebäude, Goethestrasse 58, 35390 Giessen, Germany, quoting reference number 0-20/19. Applications must be received by May 31st, 2020 at the latest.
